Big Screen Contributor Consent

Agreement for use of contribution (page 2 of 2).

All contributors in your work must be cleared for use. We The Curious will not be liable for any future claims. This includes all music you didn't make yourself, parts of other film and video output (whether it be news, documentaries, online material, sitcoms etc.) material sourced from other people and still photographs.

All minors should have parental / guardian consent to appear within the film and on the Big Screen. You may be asked to provide proof of consent at any time.

If the work includes a soundtrack you MUST obtain clearance for use in the work. This may cost money and details on how to do this are available from PRS for Music.

In a public place the audience cannot turn the screen off, and we must be sensitive to the fact that people of any age group and disposition could be watching. Where content includes elements of sex, violence, drug use, or subversion, the screen producer will refer to the content guidelines to which all work must adhere.

You agree that your contributions will not bring We The Curious into disrepute or be defamatory, but you will not be liable in respect of defamatory material, which is included without negligence or malice on your part.

We The Curious will not be liable for any third-party claims; this responsibility lies with the submission holder. If you agree with the terms set out above, please sign below and return it via email.

Changing Your Mind:

Any contributors are free to change their mind prior to play-out and request that the clip be removed but once the play-out has commenced this will not be possible.

If you agree with the terms set out above, please sign the form below and return it via email. If you are unsure of the meaning of any of the conditions set out above, please contact the Big Screen producer, bigscreen@wethecurious.org

I agree to these terms;
